

The Homer Fitts Co.

Incorporated
"The Store Where Quality Counts"

You Can Buy New Silk Dresses at this store Saturday

That are exceptional values at 16.50-18.50-19.50

For women desiring a silk dress at a moderate cost, this presents a splendid opportunity. The assortment includes Georgette Crepe, Taffeta and Satin in a complete range of Spring shades. Newest models and sizes for women and misses.

From the Mill to You Sweater Yarns at 59c skein

On Sale Saturday

Bought direct from the mill at a great concession in price, and always sold in the regular way for $1.00 a skein. This yarn is all wool and comes in full size four-ounce skeins in the following shades:

DARK GREEN	CARDIN
MAROON	DARK OX.
OLD ROSE	COPENHAGEN
NAVY	BLACK

At the exceptionally low price we are offering this yarn to our customers, we advise an early selection, as the lot is limited.

Special Items

Reduced for Quick Selling Saturday

39c Dress Gingham

Stripes and Plaids in a good assortment of patterns, 27 and 32 inches wide. Reduced for Saturday, per yard 25c

25c Romper Cloth

Very serviceable for children's rompers, dresses, etc. Reduced for Saturday. Per yard, 19c

1.00 Velvet Bags

Large shapes, good quality Velvet in Black and Navy. Reduced for Saturday. Each, 79c

TALK OF THE TOWN

While they last, six big rolls toilet paper for 25c. The Barre Drug Co.

Dance in Socialist hall, Granite street, Saturday night. Land's orchestra—adv.

Dance, Howland hall, Saturday evening; gents 50c, ladies free. Gilbertson's orchestra—adv.

This is peppermint pattie week at the Barre Candy Kitchen. Apollo peppermint patties. Watch for adv.—adv.

Again the Cartwheel Dollar.

"The cartwheel" silver dollar is again coming into its own and within five years it will be just as familiar and popular in Washington and New York as it is in the West," remarked Wilson Wallace of Kansas City. "Some western poet a few years ago wrote 'Out Where the West Begins,' and he described the beginning of the West as distinguishable where the handshakes grew stronger, the smile grew longer, and the real West is reached when the dining car waiter brings you back eight silver cartwheels and some small change after you have handed him a ten-dollar bill. Perhaps the principal reason for silver's advancing price now, in spite of the large amount traded, is the hoarding of gold from circulation in countries in Europe which were in the war. Gold is hard to obtain, hence there was a demand for the white metal to take its place. It must be remembered that the coming of gold ceased largely in the allies' mints at the outbreak of the war. This country stopped coining it early in 1918. The mints of France, England, Russia, Japan, Italy and Australia have been coining from eight to thirty times their normal new silver coinage. It is officially estimated that 190,000,000 to 225,000,000 ounces of silver have been coined in the world's mints yearly since 1914, exceeding the total world production. Gold everywhere is being paid out only under duress. Gold hereafter will be held, and if England carries through her plan for a huge permanent gold reserve of $750,000,000, then gold coin will be something that the coming generation may only be able to see when it goes to the United States treasury or takes a sight-seeing trip into the vaults of a bank.

"When the 350,000,000 cartwheel dollars melted under the authority of the Pitman law are replaced, silver will become very common in the East. Man-kind wants some kind of money that it can jingle, and there is going to be a demand for the cartwheels to be put into circulation all over the country. Knowing this, the silver states of the West, especially Montana, are planning for big silver developments."—Washington Post.

Spring and Summer Shirts

We have them in all styles and in a large variety of patterns.

Men's Shirts.....$1.00 to $5.00

Boys' Shirts.....$1.00 to $1.50

Your shirt wants may be supplied here.

The Frank McWhorter Co.

BARRE DAILY TIMES

SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 1919.

The Weather

Cloudy and continued cold to-night and Sunday; probably local snows; fresh west winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Pearl White at the Bijou to-day—adv. See registered Jersey adv. in classifieds—adv.

Special sale on toilet paper. Read our adv. Barre Drug Co.

John Burns of Northfield was a business visitor here to-day.

New lot of leaf Canadian tobacco just received at Land's Cigar Store.

Dance in Socialist hall, Granite street, Saturday night. Land's orchestra—adv. Methodist ladies will please save articles for rummage sale first week in May—adv.

Dance, Howland hall, Saturday evening; gents 50c, ladies free. Gilbertson's orchestra—adv.

Buy pianos, player pianos and talking machines at Bailey's Music Rooms, 118 North Main street—adv.

The Athena club will meet with Mrs. W. H. Wescott, 20 Nelson street, Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Albert Sedor and Dean Avery are spending the week end at the home of Kenrick Fenderson in Hanover, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Duncan of Edgewood went to Randolph last night to attend an Odd Fellows meeting held there.

James B. Brown of Jefferson street leaves to-day for Davenport, Ia., to study the art of chiropractic adjustments.

Don't forget the "Hello girls" dance at Howland hall Wednesday evening, April 30. Admission, $1 per couple, extra ladies 25c.

S. Hollister Jackson, Alexander A. Milne and Albet Bell left this afternoon for Columbus, O., on business connected with the granite industry. They will return the middle of next week.

Mrs. Albert Beattie, who for the past two weeks has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tierney of South Main street, left to-day on the noon train for her home in Hartford, Conn.

Rev. J. B. Reardon left to-day for Northfield to officiate at the funeral services of Mrs. Bullock, which took place this afternoon in that village. C. H. Bingham, the Universalist minister of that town, is attending the Boston celebration and parade. He has a son who is a soldier in the Yankee division.

The University of Vermont's baseball lineup contains the names of two lads well known in Barre as Goddard players of last year. Ralph Smith, a freshman at the college and who starred at second base last year, and Benjamin Tryon, who caught on the same team. Out of 19 men to make the Boston trip this week six men of the squad were freshmen.

A still alarm for fire last evening at 7:30 called the regulars to F. Wheaton's home at 42½ Hill street for a fire caused by a defective chimney. After the firemen had emptied one chemical tank into the partitions around the chimney, where it had ignited, they believed the fire to be thoroughly drenched out but took the precaution of leaving a man in watch lest it should not be. At 8:30 another call from the watchman summoned the men, who were compelled to chop around the fireplace in order to extinguish the fire that had again started in the partitions.

FINLAND IS HOPEFUL OF RECOGNITION

Premier Said That the New Government Would Observe True Neutrality and Maintain Friendly Relations.

Washington, D. C., April 26.—Hope for recognition of the independence of Finland by the great powers in the near future was expressed by the Finnish premier in an address to the new government members at their first session, according to Helsingfors press reports, printed in Swedish newspapers and transmitted to the state department here. The premier also said that he hoped the new government would observe true neutrality and maintain friendly relations with its western neighbors and would preserve the territorial integrity of the country.

The premier also stated that the government means to satisfy the national claims of both the national league groups on equal footing through legislation and administrative measures. The program outlined further included the moderating of penalties for political offenses and wider amnesty, strict observance of the prohibition law, a budget system regulated by imposing a direct and indirect tax levied on a graduated scale to lessen the burdens of those lacking means, the procuring of land for lessors and homes for agricultural workers.

GRANITEVILLE

Oscar Smith sold his residence yesterday to local parties. He has resided in this house for the past 17 years.

Dance Saturday evening, April 26, in gym hall, Graniteville. Erickson's orchestra; 75c per couple; ladies, free—adv.

What about starting a checking account with the Quarry Savings Bank & Trust Co., Barre, Vt.? All banking received by mail given prompt attention.

COOL NEXT WEEK.

Though Fair Weather Is Pronounced for First Half.

Washington, April 26.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Monday, issued by the weather bureau to-day, are:

North and Middle Atlantic States: Fair first half of week, with low temperatures, rising to normal by middle of the week. Rain probable latter part of week, with nearly normal temperatures.

WILL BE TURNED OVER.

German Steamship Imperator to Take on Bunker Coal.

Copenhagen, Friday, April 25.—The German steamship Imperator will proceed to Cuxhaven to-day to take on bunker coal and from there will go to England to be turned over to the allies, according to The Tageblatt of Berlin.

Granite Cutters' International Association of America.

A regular meeting of the Barre branch of the G. C. I. A. of A. will be held in Clay Gordon hall.

Una riunione regolare dell'Unione degli scalpellini (branch di Barre) avra' luogo nella sala di Clay Gordon.

On Monday evening, April 28, at 7 o'clock.

J. D. Will, Secretary.

Special sale on toilet paper. Read our adv. Barre Drug Co.

MONTPELIER

Celebration for Returned Soldiers Will Take Place May 7.

The general committee of the celebration for the returned soldiers and sailors which will be given in Montpelier, met Friday evening and decided that the celebration will take place May 7. The arrangements have not been perfected yet but they will include a parade in the afternoon, a luncheon to be served later in the day, and a reception and dance in city hall to the boys. The more minute details are to be worked out later. The decorating committee is composed of E. A. Harris, William McKee, F. E. Gleason and B. M. Shepard; luncheon, C. S. Whitier, L. H. Green and E. S. Meigs; dance, in charge of the Community club; publicity, L. D. Larabee, J. M. Healey, L. A. Kelly.

Miss Katherine Liddell, who went to France as a Red Cross nurse, is visiting at home here for a few days. She left here last summer and went to Camp Taylor and then to France with the Kentucky base hospital unit. She is on a 30 days' furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Rand have returned from spending the winter in the south.

Harry Belden of Waitsfield was in the city to-day.

The fire department was called to the Pette house on Elm street Friday afternoon for a chimney fire. It was found that the family had papered over the places where the stovepipes enter the chimney.

T. H. Cave, Jr., deputy state treasurer, has been in Boston for a few days.

George E. Carpenter has moved the state purchasing agent's office from the Union block to the State House.

The state treasurer's office has commenced paying the drafted men and those women who went into the service during the war. About 100 men have been paid thus far. These are not the volunteers for service, but those who were in the selective service draft.

Miss Marjorie Howard of Roxbury has been appointed in probate court as guardian of Jean E. Howard, a minor living in Roxbury.

Victor Welcome appeared at the office of Governor Clement this morning wanting help. He was advised to go to the state probation officer. There it was found that he had served time in Rutland as a tramp and that he had been in two institutions in Massachusetts, from one of which he was discharged recently and that since March he had been coming towards Vermont from Jeffrey, N. H.

He was sent to the police station, where Grand Juror John Stone called up David Murray upon the suggestion of Alderman Farrar of the city government and the man left for Murray's to go to work.

The case of E. H. Slayton vs. George P. Jackson has been entered in Washington county court. It is general assumption to collect $200.

The new working schedule of the train service on the Montpelier & Wells River railroad for summer use has been published and it does not show much change in the arrival and departure of trains at Montpelier. The morning train will leave at 7:50 as it has been doing, while the afternoon mixed train leaves at 2:30 o'clock, as it has been doing. The afternoon mail train will leave at 1:20 o'clock instead of 1:15, as it has been doing for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which 2,000 received their seats through the presentation of tickets by General Johnson. It was known Thursday for a few months. The morning mail train from Wells River will arrive at 11:30 o'clock, or 10 minutes later than now, while the afternoon train will arrive at 5:20, or about 50 minutes earlier than it has. The mixed train will arrive at 12:10 in the afternoon. It is apparent that the night train is not to be added to the service as some have been advocating. This schedule goes into effect May 4.

Information received from Boston last night was that the parade, from a Vermont point of view, was successful in spite of the weather. Under the arrangement of giving out tickets as planned by General H. T. Johnson, 2,500 persons from Vermont were in the stands, of which